Remember ... finalized information, driving directions, location maps, parking instructions, and agendas will be sent to you after you RSVP, so be sure to give us your address and phone number when you call!

10:00 to 10:45 Welcome and Introduction

DHPA Director Jon Smith and other DHPA staff will provide information on pertinent programs offered through the DHPA that can benefit individuals and local preservation organizations. Charlotte Johnson will introduce us to the Elkhart Historical and Cultural Preservation Commission.

10:45 to 12:15 Presentations from Preservation Organizations

Representatives from participating organizations may give brief presentations about their group and can talk about local projects or preservation challenges. Because a number of groups will be represented, we must limit speakers to one person from each organization, with 5 minutes maximum per speaker.

12:15 to 1:15 Lunch

Enjoy lunch and network with your fellow Roundup participants.

1:15 to 3:15 Local Tour of Preservation Highlights

There will be two walking tour options, which will highlight various preservation efforts in Indiana. Current plans include:

- A walking tour of historic Irvington, one of Indianapolis' early- twentieth century suburbs.
- A bus tour of the Kessler-designed Indianapolis Park and Boulevard System, with stops at Garfield Park. (Space on this tour is limited to 30 people).

3:15 to 4:00 Dessert Reception

Enjoy dessert and the opportunity to network with new friends.

Don't forget ...

Please RSVP no later than Monday, October 18, 2004!
